

Kenneally Murphy Architecture & Engineering

KENNEALLY Murphy Architecture & Engineering who straddle the Kerry-Limerick border with offices in Castleisland and Abbeyfeale, have a diverse portfolio ranging from one-off domestic houses to large high end commercial developments. Some of their recent projects include the Kerry GAA Centre of Excellence, €1million-plus Autism Spectrum Disorder extension, and primary care centres.

For any architectural or engineering requirements the company can be contact at their offices in Abbeyfeale and Castleisland Tel: 068 51152; email: info@kenneallymurphy.ie; website: www.kenneallymurphy.ie

The team at Kenneally Murphy Architecture & Engineering. Front from left: Derry Prendiville Bsc (Hons) Renewable Energy Management, Dip Arch Tech, BER assessor; Billy Horgan mRIAI Architect, Conservation Grade 3, Post Grad Dip. Fire Safety Management, Certified Passive House Designer, RIAI PSDP Accreditation, Site Suitability Assessor; Eileen Lane O'Keeffe, Office Manager Back, from left: Ann Marie Scanlon, - Office Administrator; Company director Kevin Kenneally, who has 20 years experience in the architectural / engineering sector