

THE Mayo News

▲ STANDING PROUD THE 'Sentinel' sculpture and surrounding public realm space at the junction of Peter Street and Quay Street in Westport was the winner of the People's Choice Award in The Royal Institute of the Architects of Ireland (RIAI) Irish Architecture Awards 2016. RIAI President Carole Pollard (centre) visited Westport to see the winning project last week and she was joined by a delegation from Mayo County Council, including Chief Executive Peter Hynes, Leas-Cathaoirleach of the West Mayo Municipal District, Cllr Michael Holmes, sculptor Ronan Halpin, Fr Karl Burns and representatives from the various partner agencies in Westport, such as Tidy Towns, Westport Tourism, Destination Westport, the Chamber of Commerce and Westport House. Absent was project architect Simon Wall. Pic: Michael McLaughlin